We are delighted to present this deceptively spacious and recently renovated family home to the market. Enjoying a conveniently and sought after location, well-positioned between Carryduff and Lisburn. Carr Primary School and local transport links are close to hand.

Offering five bedrooms (two with ensuite shower rooms) and four generous reception spaces it is ideal for family life. Close to the City, yet enjoying a private rural outlook to the rear.

Recently renovated by his current owners to include, upgraded kitchen, utility and luxury family bathroom. It may be the potential to be converted to provide a separate annex space above the garage (subject to the necessary consents). Plus having been redecorated internally and externally to include all wood work. Its exceptional finish really has to be viewed to be fully appreciated.
